Cancellation of events at the EC

As you are aware the spread of Covid-19 affecting Europe more and more. Because the Europe Center normally hosts a lot of international guests, the decision has been made to put the safety of our friends from around the world and of the local inhabitants of Immenstadt above all else. Therefore, we have cancelled or postponed our events for March 2020 and cannot offer any accommodation to guests until further notice.

We will being reviewing this on a daily basis, and sincerely hope to host everyone at the EC again, very soon.
